EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Eric L. Prael on April 25, 2005. The application has been amended in the claims as follows:

Claim 1: Replace "(Previously Amended)" with -- (Previously Presented) --

Claim 26: Replace "(Previously Amended)" with -- (Previously Presented) --

Claim 32: Insert --(Original) -- before "The computer program"

Claim 51: Replace "(Previously Amended)" with -- (Previously Presented) --

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Independent claims 1, 26, 51 and their respective dependent claims are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to teach the specific combination of elements as claimed in independent claims 1, 26, and 51. In particular the prior art fails to teach inter alia a method and apparatus for generating a musical part from an electronic music file comprised of pitched instrumental parts, comprising the steps of generating a control stream that indicates which of the instrumental parts has a highest value for each of a plurality of periods of time, wherein generating the control stream involves for each of the plurality of periods of time comparing a contribution of one instrumental part for that period of time to a contribution of another instrumental part for that period of time and wherein generating the control stream is based on a cost of switching between the one instrumental part and the other instrumental part. The closest prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest the feature of generating a control stream based on a cost of switching, in combination with the specific elements claimed.

Art Unit: 3713

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
